Mark's Thoughts

As we were preparing to leave Grand Cayman after a week of awesome diving, I began to think about the great people who SCUBA dive and about our sport in general. The most obvious, positive thing that can be said about divers is that we are a great social bunch who love to dive together, share our stories and to be with our fellow divers. On our most recent trip to Grand Cayman our party consisted of twenty-six diver and non-divers. I discovered, or re-discovered, that every one in our group was special in his or her own way, but our common bond was the love of the diving, a fondness of the ocean, and the satisfaction found in diving as a group. Spending time in a tropical setting with a group of people who share a common interest gives a person a feeling of pleasure and contentment that defies description.

At Southern Indiana Scuba, we understand the benefits of divers as a social group, and we strive to create that environment for our customers. We want everyone to know that you are welcome to come and enjoy yourself in your shop. Come in, have a pop, eat some popcorn and exchange stories with fellow divers.

In an effort to accommodate every diver we offer a variety of trips designed to meet everyone's time schedule and budget. We plan local dives, short trips and international expeditions to any location where divers express an interest. We are always asking for your suggestions for locations that you would like to dive, as well as, schedules that fit your needs.

New PADI Professional Divers

Congratulations:

Ted Berry and Bill Perry are our newest staff instructors. They completed the required training to become fully qualified instructors while on a trip to Mexico. Both of these persons have worked very hard to accomplish this level of training while having great fun. Less than two years ago both these guys were beginners with a desire to learn to dive. Today, they have become teachers. Be sure to congratulate them on their achievement. A great thing about our sport is that you can go as far as you

Thanksgiving and Christmas in the Keys

I have run trips to the Keys over Thanksgiving and Christmas in the past. Until the past two years they were well very received, but then only a couple showed interest.

This year I decided not to go, but lately people have begun to request these trips this year. I am taking a survey to see who is serious about going this year. I need at least 5 people to sign up for each trip. If you are interested in going please let me know.

I am looking for the people who are willing to commit to going on either of these trip. The dates would be as follows:

Thanksgiving Trip Nov 19th to 25th

Christmas Trip Dec 27th to Dec 31st

If you plan on going let me know as soon as possible.
